Orange County Registrar of Voters Honored to Have Three Generations of Huntington Beach Family Volunteer to Work Election Day

(Santa Ana, CA) – Three generations of Huntington Beach residents (and some from Fountain Valley) continue their involvement as poll workers for the upcoming November 2, 2004 election. Ann Beasley, 73, and her son David Beasley, 53 have been volunteering since 1980. Her granddaughter, Nicole Beasley, 17, will join the Registrar of Voters as a student poll worker for the first time this election. At 17 years of age Nicole is already an active member of the community, volunteering her time with several organizations.

The family believes that working the polls on Election Day is an honor and serve with a sense of pride. "I feel very strongly about being the one to introduce my granddaughter Nicole to her duty to country and to instill a sense of patriotism in her," said Ann Beasley from her Huntington Beach home.

"Orange County is looking for 7,000 volunteers to work as poll workers on Election Day and we could not conduct a successful election without the outstanding support of members of the community, such as the Beasley's," said Neal Kelley, Chief Deputy Registrar of Voters. "The Registrar of Voters has been working on non-traditional ways to reach out to its citizens and to have three generations of volunteers show their support is outstanding."

"Volunteers are the most important component to the elections process," Kelley went on to say. To volunteer as a poll worker on Election Day members of the community can visit the Registrar of Voters' web site at www.ocvote.com or call 714-567-7580.

Ann Beasley can be reached at 714-536-0157 and is available for comment.
